SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-28-95

THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

April 16, 1984
Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

SHELTON TO HOST THE AREA HIGH SCHOOL COUNSELING MEETING

Shelton State will host the quarterly meeting of the area high school counselors this Thursday, April 19, from 4:30 - 6 p.m. in the junior college auditorium.

****

MUSIC RECITAL

Pianist Lisa Williams will present a piano recital Wednesday, April 11, at 11 a.m. in the music room of the Junior College. She is a graduate student at the University of Alabama, studying with Amanda Penick and majoring in piano. Her program will consist of works by Schumann, Ravel, and Bach.

****

DUBOSE TO SPEAK TO SHELTON ALUMNI

David DuBose, owner of Tuscaloosa's newest television station, WDBB - TV, will be the guest speaker at the April meeting of the Shelton State Alumni Association. The meeting will be Wednesday, April 18, at 7:30 p.m. in room 87 of the Junior College. The new station will be known as channel 17 and according to DuBose, WDBB-TV will be "a family-oriented station."

Anyone who has attended Shelton, either the Junior College or Technical Division, is eligible for membership in the Alumni Association. "We would like to invite everyone to come Wednesday night," said Dean Montgomery, SSAA president. "We are actively trying to promote the school and its programs as well as to encourage our members to be aware of what's available and happening in the community. We have tried to bring in some outside speakers this year and Mr. DuBose will explain how the new station will effect Shelton."

****

CARMEN TICKETS FOR SALE

If you haven't purchased your tickets for "Carmen," Shelton's dinner theatre/choral production, you had better hurry. Tickets are going fast to the Tuscaloosa Community. All tickets to the dinner theatre productions scheduled for Thursday and Friday evenings, May 10 and 11, must be purchased by May 1, 1984. There will be no ticket sales to the dinner theatre production at the door.

Tickets are $7.50 each and may be purchased in the library from Debbie Grimes or Sully Cochrane. All proceeds from "Carmen" will go towards scholarships to the college. "Carmen" is being sponsored by Shelton's music department in cooperation with the Alumni Association. Performances will be at 7 p.m. in the Junior College auditorium.

****

TECHNICAL STUDENT PROVES TO BE HERO

Shelton State Technical Division student, Arthur William "Butch" Clark III, 19, of Holt, and his friend James Perry Madison, are the new local heroes. This Sunday issue of THE TUSCALOOSA NEWS GAVE front page coverage to the two young men. Clark and Madison entered a burning truck to rescue an unconscious driver last Friday afternoon and were credited with saving his life. The two pulled an Elrod man from his pickup truck while the vehicle was on fire.

****

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, IS THE LAST DAY TO DROP A CLASS THIS QUARTER WITHOUT PENALTY.

GARAGE SALE TO BENEFIT BELINDA HUGUES SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Shelton support staff is planning a garage sale to benefit the Belinda Hughes Scholarship Fund. The sale will be in the parking lot of the Junior College Division on Saturday, April 28, 1984.

Anyone who would like to donate items should turn them into the financial aid office by April 25.

****

HIGH SCHOOL ART EXHIBITION IN LIBRARY

All of the entries from the Annual High School Art Exhibition and Scholarship Competition are currently on exhibit in the library of the Junior College Division. Rob Murphree, Central High School student, was the scholarship winner for this year.

****

TCP'S FINAL PRODUCTION

"The Little Foxes," Tuscalosa Community Players' final production of the season will open on Thursday, April 26, and will run through Sunday, April 29, at the Bama Theatre. Under the direction of Shelton instructor Paul K. Looney, this drama tells of the corruption and decadence in the post-Civil War South. It is an intense study of relationships within a family falling apart. Having just completed an acclaimed international run, "The Little Foxes" is a proven and enduring classic of the American stage.

****

PHI THETA KAPPA HONORARY

The Shelton State chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary, is now accepting membership applications. To be accepted into this organization, a student must have a 3.2 GPA for two consecutive quarters or 25 consecutive hours for part-time people. According to faculty advisor Guil Kicker, membership in Phi Theta Kappa gives a person an opportunity to meet other students who have achieved academic excellence and certainly helps you in many other ways. Any student who is interested and who meets the qualifications should pick up an application at the student services office and return it to Ms. Kicker's box by April 20.

****

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama State Fire College will host the 48th Annual Fire College Week beginning on April 23 and continuing through April 27. All classes will be taught at the Fire College on McFarland Blvd. Approximately 50 participants are expected. Most of those attending will be fire fighting volunteers although some paid fire fighters will be in attendance. They will burn a house on Thursday. This course is designed to upgrade the skills of firefighters.

****

FORMER SHELTON STUDENT TO BE HONORED AT ALUMNI MEETING

Former Shelton student Jim Anderson will be honored at the April meeting of the Shelton State Alumni Association Wednesday, April 18, at 7:30 p.m. in room 87 of the Junior College. Anderson was the 1982 recipient of the Leo Sumner Award and was recently honored by the University of Alabama during Honors Day. He received the Chester H. Knight Memorial Scholarship valued at $600 which is awarded annually to the outstanding accounting student of the University. Incidentally, Chester H. Knight was the father of Shelton instructor Dr. Julie Bailey, who was Jim's first accounting teacher at Shelton. A reception honoring Anderson will follow the meeting. All of the faculty, staff, and administration of the college are invited to attend.